

How to Prepare for your Exercise Prescription Appointment:

Please wear comfortable workout clothing with appropriate footwear for your training consultation. If you have any exercise recommendation documents from your referring physician or physical therapist, please be sure to bring them to your appointment.

You will receive an email from your provider requesting information to understand your interests and goals.